BCM Holds Successful Auction at Goodwood

BCM, the rural property specialists operating throughout Southern England, raised money in the auction they conducted at the Countryside Alliance day held at Goodwood Race Course on behalf of the Countryside Alliance. From the following lots alone they raised over £4,000.

These included a Raymond Weil Ladies Tango Watch, with mother of pearl face and roman numerals.

A Hound Print by Heather Budgett.

Two days Fishing on the River Derwent for two people.

Falconry Experience for up to 6 people at the Firle Shoot in Sussex.

A Stay in the Village House in La Flotte, Ile De Re, France.

And various lots in a silent auction including "Tickets for Olympia", "Trout Fishing", "Grand National Badges", "Lunch at the Kennels at Goodwood" and a days shooting.

Despite the wet and windy weather, spirits were high at the lunch which was hosted by the Alliance and there were plenty of people willing to put their hands in the air at the auction for the cause.

Tom Tyrwhitt-Drake, acting as the auctioneer from BCM commented: "There was a good crowd there and bidding was brisk. We are delighted that we were able to raise this money for the Countryside Alliance, an organisation that BCM is very happy to support".
