Jessica Harris Bids Farewell to BCM

It was with some sadness that BCM held a farewell party for Jessica Harris as she leaves to start a degree course at Oxford Brooks University. Jessica joined BCM to support the team in all aspects of their services, but it was a quirk of fate that Jess, as she likes to be known, is a descendant of James Harris. He set up the eponymous firm which was a stalwart of Hampshire rural property services from its inception in 1861 to its merger with Savills in July 1998. All the founder Partners of BCM were part of James Harris until its merger.

Andrew Bays, Managing Partner of BCM comments "We are sad to see her go as she has been a great asset to the team at BCM and of course we all wish her success in her future career."

Note

Jess has a link to BCM's past with James Harris, and also to Robin Lalonde, the eldest member of BCM's team who was pupil to and then partner with James Harris' grandson, Jim Harris. BCM was delighted to have had the opportunity to work with another member of the Harris dynasty.
