BCM supporting local charity shoot

The charity Lobster Shoot raising money for the Countryside Alliance was held at the Bereleigh Estate between Winchester and Petersfield.

Fifty teams of guns spent the day honing their skills trying to hit as many of the targets as possible. Kate Hoey MP, Chairman of the Countryside Alliance was in attendance supporting this charitable fundraising day. As one of the sponsors, the Partners of BCM, rural property specialists in Sutton Scotney were also in attendance giving their support to this worthwhile cause.

As part of their contribution to the day, Iain Curry and Tom Tyrwhitt-Drake of BCM held the charity auction in the evening which raised over £8,500.

Tom Tyrwhitt-Drake of BCM, comments: "I find myself wearing two hats today, one as a member of BCM who are sponsors of the charity shoot and the other in a family capacity as my father has put on the whole fundraising day together with the help of much of the rest of the family and friends. It has been a thoroughly successful day where we have raised in excess of £35,000."
