BCM supporting local charity shoot

The charity Lobster Shoot raising money for the Countryside Alliance will be held at the Bereleigh Estate between Winchester and Petersfield on June 4th.

Fifty teams of guns are expected to spend the day honing their skills trying to hit as many of the targets as possible followed by dinner, an auction and prize giving including awarding the Trophy for the day's best totals. Teams of four can enter at a cost of £300 a team. As one of the sponsors, the Partners of BCM, rural property specialists in Sutton Scotney, were also in attendance giving their support to this worthwhile cause.

As part of their contribution to the day, Iain Curry and Tom Tyrwhitt-Drake of BCM will hold the charity auction in the evening which last year raised over £15,000 and over all the charity day raised £45,000 for the Countryside Alliance. Bill and Philippa Tyrwhitt-Drake who organise the whole day hope to at least match if not surpass this total for 2011. This year the auction prizes already secured include a weekend boar and pheasant shooting in France, Pair of guns for a shoot at Bowcombe on the Isle of Wight, rabbit shooting in Kent and many, many more in the pipeline.

Tom Tyrwhitt-Drake of BCM, comments: "I find myself wearing two hats today, one as a member of BCM who are sponsors of the charity shoot and the other in a family capacity as my father has put on the whole fundraising day together with the help of much of the rest of the family and friends. The day is by invitation only so make your requests now if you are interested in helping raise money for a good cause and having a cracking good day out too."
