Story book living – in a tower!

Gardeners Tower at Rotherfield Park has become available for rent. This is a property where, refreshingly, use of the adjectives “unique” and “extraordinary” are not an overstatement. Originally built as a folly to the Rotherfield Park Estate in the mid to late 1800’s, Gardener’s Tower was more recently converted to a residential home as the gardener’s lodgings.

The tower offers excellent accommodation with a large sitting room, dining room, fully fitted kitchen, utility room, cloakroom and doors leading to a terrace on the ground floor. The first floor has the master bedroom complete with dressing room and large en-suite bathroom. A spiral staircase leads to the second floor which also has a large double bedroom with walk-in wardrobe and en-suite bathroom. Situated another level up the tower is the magnificent top floor drawing room with a staircase to a mezzanine library. Above this is the turreted roof terrace, tiled in black and white tiles, with unrivalled views over the Hampshire downland providing superb, totally private, outside space complete with external lighting, benches and planters.

Throughout, Gardener’s Tower offers substantial living accommodation within the extraordinary dimensions of a unique tower structure emphasised by the rounded dimensions of the rooms and the spiral staircase.

The tower has its own access with private parking and a garden, which is all maintained by the estate. It has central heating and a wood burning stove in the sitting room. Fully carpeted and curtained throughout, the tower has been fully modernised and makes a magnificent family home or an ideal weekend retreat.

Gardener’s Tower is available now at a rent of £1,500 pcm.
