BCM APPOINT NEW PARTNERS

David Long BA (Hons) P&D MA RTPI

BCM, specialists in rural property operating throughout southern England, have recently appointed three Partners to their business.

Following David Long's appointment as a Partner last year, BCM have now appointed Mike Papps as a Partner, both of whom are part of the Design & Planning team. BCM have also appointed Tom Bishop in the Rural Consultancy team as an Associate Partner.

David Long operates from the Isle of Wight office whilst Mike Papps and Tom Bishop operate from the Winchester office.

Iain Curry, Senior Partner of BCM comments:

"We are delighted to have promoted David and Mike as they are successful and integral members of the burgeoning design and planning area of our business and these promotions are part of our ongoing expansion in this service offering.

We also congratulate Tom Bishop on being made an Associate Partner. Tom's appointment is a reflection of his great ability, enthusiasm and drive".

The appointments are part of BCM's ongoing strategy to expand their rural services and in response to considerable recent growth.
